I help support healing, hope & resiliency.

What is your name and position at Thompson?

My name is Amber Sayavong and I started as the Authorization Specialist and Judicial Liaison. Since then, I have changed positions and now work as the Admissions Coordinator.

What 'superpower' do you bring to this role?

The superpower I bring to my role is my organizational superpower! You can be successful and not be organized, but for me, I pride myself in being organized! It has helped me in this role at Thompson.

What's your favorite thing about the Thompson culture?

My favorite thing about Thompson is that we show how teamwork makes the dream work. Our clients rely on us on so many different levels, and having great people around you who work together makes all our jobs easier, and of course in turn, helps our clients.

What are you most proud of about your work at Thompson?

I am proud of my growth within Thompson, but being able to make a positive impact, even if it's the smallest with the parents or the children I talk to is what I'm most proud about.

If you could sum up your employment with Thompson with a quote - what would it be?

"Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success." – Henry Ford. This quote perfectly encapsulates the journey and growth I've experienced with Thompson, as well as the collaborative spirit that drives our success.
