SPRING 2025

'You are helping break the cycle of intergenerational trauma and support the healing of a teen that very desperately wants her life to be better.' ~ Kate's Youth Support Partner

Thanks to you, Kate's future looks promising!

At just five years old, Kate's world changed forever when her mother walked out, leaving her and her sister behind. With nowhere else to turn, they went to live with their father - a man she loved deeply, but who struggled with addiction and the weight of his own past.

By the time she was nine, Kate and her sister were placed in foster care. What followed was years of instability, bouncing from home to home - six placements in total. Each time, she hoped for a fresh start, but the pain she carried often made it difficult to stay.

Despite everything, Kate is resilient. She dreams of stability, of feeling safe, of a future where she is truly home. And because of your generosity, she is one step closer.

Your support means that youth like Kate don't have to navigate these challenges alone. It means access to caring adults, safe spaces, and the resources she needs to heal and grow.

Thank you for believing in her...thank you for giving her hope.

But we can't do it alone. Your donation today will help us reach those in desperate need, offering stability, care, and hope in this time of crisis.
